

Baillieston Community Hub public engagement

The proposed new Baillieston Community Hub is one of the largest projects to impact the east of the city in recent years and highlights the city’s commitment to the health and well-being of its citizens. It will ensure the expansion in residential development within Baillieston, Broomhouse and Carmyle is complemented by modern, accessible facilities that encourage residents and visitors to experience life affirming activities in a family friendly environment.

Located within James Lindsay Memorial Park, the aim of the new £14.6 million Hub is to create a focal point where people can meet, participate, learn and relax within an enhanced parkland setting. This will be made possible by the construction of light and airy modern facilities and the delivery of a programme of activities including relocated library/ learning services, health and fitness, and social and cultural events.
