Fri 3 Nov, 7.30pm

Scottish Chamber Orchestra: Appalachian Spring with Ryan Bancroft

£12 – £34

From homespun folk hymns to blazing marching bands, experience musical America at its most visionary – in the hands of vibrant young California-born conductor (and RCS alumnus) Ryan Bancroft.

Tue 7 Nov, 7pm

David Duchovny

£30.80, VIP £198.80 (includes booking fee)

Best known for his lead roles in The X-Files and Californication, David Duchovny is also a musician. Joined by his band in Glasgow, David's music evokes 70s California pop, alternative rock, folk and country.

Sat 4 Nov, 5.30pm

BBC SSO: David Fennessy's Conquest of the Useless

£12

Inspired by Werner Herzog's struggles filming Fitzcarraldo, this epic three-part work touches on madness, ambition, Verdi, belief, musical romanticism and the chaotic brutality of the jungle. Preceded by a screening of documentary Burden of Dreams.

Fri 10 Nov, 8pm

Scottish Chamber Orchestra: Steve Reich +

£15 – £25

Classic minimalism from founding father of the genre Steve Reich – plus plenty more. Edinburgh-born international percussion soloist Colin Currie directs an evening of propulsive rhythm and calming contemplation.

Sat 11 Nov, 7pm
Weyes Blood

£29.12 (advanced), £33.60 (on the night)

Transcendent and sometimes wistful, the folk-pop of Weyes Blood (a.k.a. Natalie Mering) explores everything that drives us, divides us, and destroys us. Mering is an effortless guide – her music unfurling with stunning nuance and ease.

Sun 12 Nov, 7.30pm
Baga Chipz

£26.88, VIP £40.32 (includes booking fee)

The iconic Drag Race UK legend hits the road with her first ever solo theatre show. With live singing, dancing, comedy and much more. Are you ready to live in Baga Chipz' material girl life?

Thu 16 Nov, 7.30pm
BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra: Mahler's 'Song of the Earth'

£15 – £30

A symphony like no other that distils every last drop of life's sorrow and sweetness into six soul-wrenching songs. Conducted by Alpesh Chauhan who is in his element when drawing intimate emotion from epic scores.

Thu 23 Nov, 7.30pm
BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra: Elgar's Symphony No.1

£15 – £30

Edward Elgar's First Symphony spans worlds – a sweeping, multicoloured musical autobiography on a magnificent scale, burning with passion and beginning (as well as ending) with a melody you'll never forget.

Fri 24 Nov, 7.30pm

SCO: Mendelssohn Piano Concerto No 1 with Benjamin Grosvenor

£12 – £34

Mendelssohn's sparkling First Piano Concerto is something of an overlooked masterpiece. Electrifying British pianist Benjamin Grosvenor is just the musician to reveal its fiery virtuosity as well as its delicate, Chopin-like beauty.

Fri 1 Dec, 7.30pm

SCO: Schubert Mass In A-Flat with The SCO Chorus

£12 – £34

Schubert devoted as much craft and care to his music for church as he did to his songs and chamber music. His Mass No. 5 is a visionary work of transcendent beauty and warmth.

Thu 30 Nov, 7.30pm

Billy Billingham MBE – Always A Little Further

£31.36 – £42.56 (includes booking fee)

Billy Billingham shares his compelling life story. Educating, entertaining, and enthralling in equal measure. The evening will inspire those wishing to seek a challenge and conquer it – the SAS way.

Thu 7 Dec, 7.30pm

BBC SSO: The Shostakovich Piano Concertos

£15 – £30

Acclaimed pianist Federico Colli takes centre stage with Sir Mark Elder, one of the world's most respected conductors, to play both of Shostakovich's Piano Concertos in one sparkling concert.

Fri 8 Dec, 7.30pm

Scottish Chamber Orchestra: Maxim's Baroque Inspirations

£12 – £34

Baroque music at its most flamboyant, alongside later sounds inspired by it – and the ideal opportunity for Maxim Emelyanychev to raise the roof with his exuberant passions as both conductor and harpsichord soloist.

Fri 15 Dec, 7.30pm

SCO: Beethoven Violin Concerto with Nicola Benedetti

£12 – £34

Sublime, serene, majestic – Beethoven's Violin Concerto is all of those, and also a lot of fun. Superstar violinist Nicola Benedetti has been immersed in the piece for years and discovers new depths at every performance.

Thu 14 Dec, 2pm

BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra: Muzyka Polska!

£15 (advanced), £16.50 (on the day)

A showcase of stirring music by Polish composers. The closing piece, Witold Lutosławski's Concerto for Orchestra is one of post-war music's true showstoppers, and a special favourite of guest conductor Marta Gardolińska.

Sun 17 Dec, 3pm

BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra: Christmas at the Movies

£18 – £33

Jamie MacDougall presents this annual festive feast of movie music. Expect the sumptuous sounds of Hollywood's Golden Age, John Williams blockbusters, Disney favourites and the occasional surprise.
